

CATÓLICA FELLOWSHIPS FOR PORTUGUESE AMERICAN STUDENTS ^{NEW!}

Universidade Católica Portuguesa offers 5 fellowships to Portuguese American students seeking undergraduate or Masters level degrees in any field of knowledge.

The CFPA Fellowships are merit based fellowships awarded to American students of Portuguese descent, who wish to seek a degree at Universidade Católica Portuguesa. The fellowship consists in a full tuition waiver tenable for 36 (or 48 months for a degree in Law), provided the grantee keeps an excellent academic record. The CFPA fellowship is worth up to 6333€/academic year.

The fellowship is awarded to applicants for undergraduate degrees (except Dentistry) and M.A. and MSc degrees in every field of knowledge.

Eligibility criteria:

Applicants must be college/university seniors or college/university graduates, depending on the level of the program they wish to apply to.

To be considered for nomination as a CFPA Fellow, a student must:

- 1 - Fulfill the merit based enrollment conditions as an international student at UCP.
- 2 - Have a high school or college grade-point average of at least "B" (or the equivalent) and be in the upper fourth of his or her class.
- 3 - Be a US citizen of Portuguese descent with an outstanding / very good academic record.

Applicant check list:

- Online application;
- Motivation letter, detailing how the academic program and their overall educational plans will prepare them for their chosen career goal;
- Official transcripts;

Please provide an official transcript from each educational institution attended.

Selection criteria:

Applicants are evaluated on the basis of:

- Demonstrated potential for a commitment to a career in the chosen education field;
- Academic performance.

Applications due: December 30, 2016

Selection committee meeting: January 2017

Results: February 2017

Successful applicants for undergraduate degrees must provide official transcripts/ proof of secondary school conclusion with the expected grade by June 30;

For M.A., L.L.M. or MSc applicants, proof of conclusion of the previous degree must be provided till October 30.
